IMPRISONMENT

As to Count 1 of the information, it is adjudged that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 30 months. I recommend that the defendant receive educational and vocational training and mental health and substance abuse treatment. It is also recommended that the defendant be afforded prerelease placement in a residential reentry center with work release privileges in the event that the defendant is not deported.

The U.S. Probation Office is to notify local law enforcement agencies, and the state attorney general, of defendant's release to the community.

The defendant presents neither a flight risk nor a danger to the community. Therefore, execution of the sentence of imprisonment is stayed until March 3, 2016, when he is to report to an institution to be designated by the Bureau of Prisons between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. His conditions of pretrial services supervision are continued until March 3, 2016.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

At least a three-year term of supervised release is required by statute. The term of imprisonment is to be followed by a three-year term of supervised release subject to the standard conditions. In light of the nature of the offense and the defendant's personal history, I adopt the standard and special conditions proposed in the presentence report. Neither party has raised any objections to the proposals.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, the primary goals of supervised release are to assist defendants' transition into the community after a term of imprisonment and to provide rehabilitation. Supervision in this case will provide the defendant with needed correctional programming, which will include rehabilitative programs to assist with community reintegration; afford adequate deterrence to further criminal conduct; and protect the public from further crimes perpetrated by the defendant.

The defendant is subject to conditions number 1 through 9 and 12 through 15, as outlined and justified in the appendix to the presentence report. These conditions are warranted because the defendant was involved in a conspiracy that distributed in excess of 100 kilograms of marijuana in Madison. The defendant and his codefendants were obtaining marijuana from a source in California. The defendant recently traveled nationally and internationally. The defendant is from Gambia and will be facing an immigration judge regarding his deportation status because of his instant conviction. The defendant graduated from high school and has taken numerous courses at the University of Wisconsin - Madison. He does not have fixed employment. He has a history of alcohol and marijuana use.

Defendant is to abide by the statutory mandatory conditions.

Statutory Mandatory Conditions

Defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

If defendant has been convicted of a felony, defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon while on supervised release.

Defendant shall cooperate with the collection of DNA by the U.S. Justice Department and/or the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office as required by Public Law 108-405.

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Financial Penalties sheet of this judgment.

Defendant shall comply with the standard and special conditions that have been adopted by this court.

Standard Conditions of Supervision

- 1) Defendant shall not leave the judicial district in which defendant is being supervised without the permission of the Court or probation officer;

- 2) Defendant is to report to the probation office as directed by the Court or probation officer and shall submit a complete written report within the first five days of each month, answer inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the officer's instructions. The monthly report and the answer to inquiries shall be truthful in all respects unless a fully truthful statement would tend to incriminate defendant, in violation of defendant's constitutional rights, in which case defendant has the right to remain silent;
- 3) Defendant shall maintain lawful employment, seek lawful employment, or enroll and participate in a course of study or vocational training that will equip defendant for suitable employment, unless excused by the probation officer or the Court;
- 4) Defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of any change in residence, employer, or any change in job classification;
- 5) Defendant shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 6) Defendant shall not visit places where defendant knows or has reason to believe controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 7) Defendant shall not meet, communicate, or spend time with any persons defendant knows to be engaged in criminal activity or planning to engage in criminal activity;
- 8) Defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit defendant at home, work, or elsewhere at any reasonable time and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
- 9) Defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- ~~10) Defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court;~~
- ~~11) As directed by the probation officer, defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics. The probation officer may also take steps to confirm defendant's compliance with this notification requirement or provide such notifications directly to third parties.~~

Special Conditions of Release

- 12) Submit person, property, residence, papers, vehicle, or office to a search conducted by a U.S. probation officer at a reasonable time and manner, whenever the probation officer has reasonable suspicion of contraband or of the violation of a condition of release relating to substance abuse or illegal activities; failure to submit to a search may be a ground for revocation; defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises defendant is occupying may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition;
- 13) Participate in mental health referral, assessment and treatment as approved by the supervising U.S. probation officer and comply with all rules, regulations and recommendations of the mental health agency or its representative to the extent approved by the supervising U.S. probation officer. If defendant is eligible for funding from any source to cover the cost of treatment, defendant is to make reasonable efforts to obtain such funding. Participation in treatment does not require payment by defendant unless it is clear defendant can afford it;
- 14) Comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement under the United States Department of Homeland Security and if deported or excluded from the United States, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States without legal permission. If reentry into the United States occurs, defendant shall report to the nearest probation office within 72 hours;

15) Participate in substance abuse treatment. If defendant is eligible for funding from any source to cover the cost of treatment, defendant is to make reasonable efforts to obtain such funding. Participation in treatment does not require payment by defendant unless it is clear defendant can afford it. Defendant shall submit to drug testing beginning within 15 days of defendant's release and 60 drug tests annually thereafter. The probation office may utilize the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts' phased collection process; and

16) Provide the supervising U.S. probation officer any and all requested financial information, including copies of state and federal tax returns.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CONDITIONS

I have read or have had read to me the conditions of supervision set forth in this judgment, and I fully understand them. I have been provided a copy of them. I understand that upon finding a violation of probation or supervised release, the Court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.
